Why work for us

Our benefits

Developing our people

As an organisation, our purpose is to support young people to belong, contribute and thrive, and it shouldn't be any different when it comes to our own colleagues. The Learning and Development Team at YMCA DLG provide a wide variety of formal learning opportunities but learning here is more than just training courses.

We are committed to everyone completing the mandatory training required for their role and providing colleagues with guidance on the Learning and Development opportunities available to them to aid development in current posts and career progression if desired. Our Learning Hub has access to a range of learning resources across the following areas:

Reflective practice supervision

YMCA DLG is committed to being a Trauma-Informed Organisation, recognising the high prevalence of trauma in homeless or at-risk children and young people.

All employees working directly with clients have access to regular group Reflective Practice Supervision. These sessions are designed to enable our staff to remain mentally and emotionally well enough to continue to carry out their challenging roles effectively. They allow time to process the emotional impact of situations they see, hear and experience, support them to maintain their emotional resilience and to maintain professional boundaries and independence.

For therapeutic roles, we also offer access to clinical supervision where employees can utilise the knowledge and experience of their supervisor to improve their own clinical performance.

Interview Guidance

- ▶ The expected interview dates can be found on the Job Description for the role. Please try and keep some time free on these days to interview.
- ▶ Look through this job pack and our website in preparation for your interview. We believe passionately about the work we do and seek people who feel the same.
- ▶ Make sure you have the application pack to hand ahead of time and confirm attendance with the Recruitment team.
- ▶ At YMCA DownsLink we are very proud of our values and are keen to find out what values are important to you. It is likely that we will discuss this at your interview and ask that you prepare accordingly.
- ▶ We will sometimes include competency-based questions at your interview. To prepare, think about scenarios where you have shown key skills related to the job description that you can use in an interview. A good way to approach answering competency-based questions is using the STAR method:
 - ▶ Situation – Set the scene and provide details of your example.
 - ▶ Task – Explain what your responsibility was in this situation.
 - ▶ Actions – Explain in detail what you took to address the issue.
 - ▶ Result - What changed because of you? What would you perhaps do differently in the future?
- ▶ Interviews will be conducted by a small panel from the relevant team. This will include the line-manager for the role.
- ▶ For some roles there will be two stages to the interview process before an offer is made. These will likely consist of a first stage virtual interview with managers and a second stage interview where you will be able to visit the project (if applicable) or meet relevant team members. There may also be opportunities to meet the wider team and the Head of Service, or Director. Please note that the interview structures may vary from role to role.
- ▶ You may be asked to attend your initial interview via Zoom or MS Teams.
- ▶ Find a private, well-lit space, with a good internet connection, to ensure the interview runs as smoothly as possible. Check your connection, microphone, camera in advance.
- ▶ We recommend that you log-in to the Zoom or MS Teams link at least 5 minutes before the start of the interview so that the panel can make the most of your allotted interview time.

Policy on the recruitment of ex-offenders

YMCA DLG actively promotes equality of opportunity for all, and applications are welcome from a wide range of candidates.

We undertake not to discriminate unfairly against any applicant because of a criminal record or other information revealed. Criminal records and other information will be considered for recruitment purposes only when they are relevant.

We select all candidates for interview based on their skills, qualifications, and experience. We ask all applicants called for interview to provide details of their criminal record. Depending on the nature of the position applied for, YMCA DLG may request details of your entire criminal record or only of 'unspent' convictions as defined in the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974.

We request that this information is sent under separate, confidential cover to a designated person within YMCA DLG and we guarantee that this information is only seen by those who need to see it as part of the recruitment process. We would point out that for the successful candidate, this information will be verified by requesting a Disclosure statement from the Disclosure and Barring Service before the appointment is confirmed.

Failure to reveal information that is relevant to the position sought could lead to withdrawal of an offer of employment or subsequent dismissal.

We ensure that all those in YMCA DLG who are involved in the recruitment process have been suitably trained to identify and assess the relevance and circumstances of offences. We also ensure that they have received appropriate guidance and training in the relevant legislation relating to the employment of ex-offenders e.g., the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974.

At interview, or in a separate discussion, we ensure that an open and measured discussion takes place about any offences or other matters that might be relevant to the position.

For those positions where a Disclosure is required, application forms and guidance notes will contain a statement that a Disclosure will be requested in the event of the candidate being made a conditional offer of employment.

We undertake to discuss any matter revealed in a Disclosure with the person seeking the position before withdrawing a conditional offer of employment.

Having a criminal record will not necessarily bar you from working with YMCA DLG. This will depend on the nature of the position and the circumstances and background of any offences. However, as the nature of the YMCA DLG's work brings its employees & volunteers into contact with young people (those under 18 years old) and/or vulnerable adults, a criminal record or other information which makes an application unacceptable for a position of trust will render the applicant unsuitable.

As an organisation using the Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) Disclosure service to assess applicants' suitability for positions of trust, this policy complies with the DBS Code of Practice.

Declaration of Criminal Background & Guidelines for Working with Young People and/or Vulnerable Adults

The Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 sets out to help people who have been convicted of a criminal offence and have not been convicted again in a specified period. This period is known as a rehabilitation period.

Once a rehabilitation period has expired and no further offending has taken place, a conviction is 'spent'.

Once a conviction is spent, the convicted person does not have to reveal it or admit its existence in most circumstances.

The Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions Order) gives some exemptions from the Act, whereby details of 'spent' convictions must be declared. One of these exemptions is working with young people and/or vulnerable adults. When recruiting people to work in such positions of trust an employer is entitled to ask for details of all convictions, spent and unspent.

If you are invited to an interview, please bring with you a completed Declaration of Criminal Background Form which is enclosed in this application pack. It asks for details of spent and unspent convictions, cautions, reprimands, and final warnings. You should complete the form and place it in an envelope marked 'Private and Confidential', addressed to the Interview Panel. Your name should be clearly stated on the front.

The information relating to criminal convictions will only be seen by the interview panel if we are considering offering you employment. If you wish to discuss the information that you have given, please mention this to an interviewer. Having made its selection, the panel may wish to discuss any information given with you. Having a conviction will not necessarily bar you from consideration for the post. Criminal records will be considered only when they are relevant to the position for which you are applying. The information you provide will remain confidential.

If you are made a conditional offer YMCA DLG will apply for an Enhanced DBS Disclosure depending on the nature of the job.

The DBS offers organisations a means to check the background of job applicants to ensure that they do not have a history that would make them unsuitable for the post.

DBS Disclosures are provided by the Disclosure and Barring Service, an executive agency of the Home Office. Enhanced disclosures provide details of a person's criminal record including convictions, cautions, reprimands, and warnings; they also contain details from lists held by Government departments of those considered unsuitable for this type of work. Organisations using the DBS process must comply with the Code of Practice, a copy of which is available on request.

If you have any queries, please speak to a member of the Recruitment team.
